

Praise God for how He helped you in 2017.

What is one thing you are especially grateful for in 2017? Talk to God about that.

How have you grown in your walk with the Lord in 2017?
Thank God for helping you grow in that area.

How (specifically) do you want to grow or develop spiritually in 2018? Talk to God about that.

Who reached out to you in 2017? Thank God for them.

Who did you reach out to in 2017? Pray that God continues the work He did through you.

Think about what is unique about you. Sometimes the enemy tries to make us feel "different" because of those things. Talk to the Lord about how He wants to use the beautiful, uniqueness of you to do amazing things.

How do you see God reaching out through you in 2018?
Pray about that.

If you could describe the work of God in your life in 2017, using one word, what word would that be? How might that word connect with what He has placed in your heart for 2018?

What is one achievable way that you can stretch yourself in your relationship with the Lord? Maybe it is related to your worship in song, your prayer time, or the quality of time spent thinking about the Word. Talk to God about that.

Think about a woman whose walk with the Lord you admire (could be someone here on earth, or in Heaven!). What spiritual "characteristics" do they have? Talk to the Lord about those spiritual characteristics.

Ask the Lord to reveal to you an area in your life where you "oppose" Him instead of getting into agreement with Him. Make the decision to open your heart to Him in this area over the next few months.

How is your Conversation with God? Ask God to continue to talk and reveal Himself to you--however He wants to do it!

Where do you see God's Light in your life? Ask the Lord to flood you with His Light in 2018.
